

Exning Parish Council Cemeteries

TABLE OF FEES EFFECTIVE FROM 1st September 2019

INTRODUCTION

Fees and Payments

The following rules shall apply in relation to fees and payments:

- a) The fees and payments within paragraph 1, 2 and 3 below shall apply where the deceased was an inhabitant (see notes below) of Exning Parish and the Newmarket Town Council area.
- b) The fees and payments within paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 below shall be DOUBLED for all other applicants.
- c) It should be noted that the fees and payments within paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 below EXCLUDE THE GRAVE DIGGING FEE (see 'Grave Digger's Fees').

Notes:

1. For the purpose of this rule, "inhabitant" shall mean a person who, at the date of application or at the date of his or her death, had normally resided some time during the three years immediately prior thereto within Exning Parish and the Newmarket Town Council area.
2. The fees and payments may also be reduced when it can be proved to the Council's satisfaction that special circumstances exist which would warrant a reduction. The Council's decision will be final. In cases where a reduction is sought, the FULL FEES should be paid and WRITTEN application should be made for a refund once the funeral has taken place.
3. Residents who have moved out of the area through no fault of their own to a residential or nursing home are to be treated as though they are still an "inhabitant".
